T-bird home games concession stand. Jason Breiner noted there will be a vocation meeting for TES and he will mention the concessions opening to his advisor. President Yellow Earring noted that CDC lost sales during the basketball tourney due to Student Senates location of their stand. He would like to make a donation of $200 to the CDC to help with their gift purchase for their students.

Dual Enrolment icebreaker is set for Thursday at 6:30 in the cafeteria conference room. Dual enrollment is highschool students taking college courses on line at UTTC. Students attending will be from Turtle Mountain Chippewa Reservation, Tiospaye Zina with visiting students numbering at 35. There will be a dinner and welcoming to the students. Friday there will be a campus tour. Student senate will be doing a welcoming as well as an icebreaker. Student senate and student ambassadors will meet at 430 at JBC.

Monte Schaff noted that he will have to exit meeting and would like the floor. Mr. Schaff stated that he hopes to have student senate meetings broadcast on line by next semester-spring 2012. The educational outreach program purchased new digital video cameras and microphones which will enable them to broadcast events online as well as steam in real time.

Monte Schaff leaves meeting.

Christmas bingo concessions for December 11, 2011. Student senate requests any volunteers to help with concessions for the Christmas bingo. Student senate may decide to sell a food plate along with regular concession items. Wendy will contact Kathleen Thurman for any volunteers from the business vocation.

Treasure report-Tabled until next meeting. Motion made by Nicole Montclair, 2nd by Laramie Plainfeather. 5 in favor, 1 not voting. Motion passed.

Fall honoring graduates. What is done for fall graduates must be done for spring graduates. Contact Jen Janacek for any financial assistance toward fall graduates gifts. Also contact Tom Spain to inquire if student senate might assist the graduation committee.

Santa's Workshop-Student senate would like to make announcement of the event to all faculty and advisors. Glen Philbrick with the retention department will be purchasing gifts to give away at event. Historically the cafeteria gives candy bags for children. Any students interested in volunteering should show up at event.
